The Dominion Elections

The Dominion elections are now about over and many surprises—disagreeable and otherwise—have been sprung upon the electors of this country.

But very few people around these parts expected a change of government and still fewer were those who thought that such a majority would be given the Conservative party.

With the people of this province took favourably to the proposed reciprocity agreement between Canada and the United States, it is all too evident that the voters in the eastern provinces did not view the said agreement in the same light as the Westerners did. Then, again, the false annexation scare raised by the Conservative party and so persistently carried on by their spell-binders secured many seats and was probably the most successful vote catcher used by the Borden heeler. In addition to this, it is said that an immense campaign fund was available right from the commencement of the elections and that the conservative workers were well provided with money supplied by eastern manufacturers for the purpose of waging a vigorous war against reciprocity. It is impossible to over-estimate the monstrous influences which were used to defeat the Liberal party.

The election of Dr. D. Warnock in this constituency is a great victory for the Liberal party.

During the past seven years this riding had been represented in the federal house by a Conservative, but although the ex-member, John Heron, broke away from his party, sometimes it was difficult to tell whether he was friend or foe of reciprocity with the United States on natural products.

However, the fight is over, and in the words of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, we "gladly submit to the inevitable."

Editorial Notes

Write it—Dr. D. Warnock,

M.P.

John couldn't come back.

Didn't we say so.

Frank Oliver bore the "Cross" during the recent elections and received the reward—re-elected by a large majority.

If reports come true, a noticeable extermination amongst certain species of the feathered nest will take place on Monday next.

This is the time of the year when nature is trying to outdo herself in beautifying the hills and mountains as well as many parts of the plains in gorgeous colors and golden tints.

The many recent large shipments of coal from several of the towns of The Pass give a cheerful phase to the strike situation, and certainly indicate a new return of the former activity.

A suitable and most fitting selection for the band to have played on the arrival of Dr.

Warnock to town, just before the elections last week, would have been, "See the Conquering Hero Comes!"

The fall of snow on Thursday last and the chilly weather which accompanied it are but forerunners of what we might expect under Conservative rule with such a combination as

Borden, Monk, Foster, Bourassa and Clifford Sifton to rule the destiny of this land of ours.

At the regular meeting of the Guild, held in the Presbyterian church, on Monday evening last, it was decided by three competent judges that women should not be given the franchise and that women's suffrage should not be tolerated in Blair-more. We might state that this great movement of public opinion (whom?) thoroughly coincides with such a decision.

As Sir Wilfrid Laurier disembarks from the ship of state he leaves behind him a chart which

R. L. Borden might well follow and a record cleaner and better than that of any other Canadian statesman. We believe that the great Liberal captain will again walk the quarter-deck of that ship, take the wheel and continue to safely steer it into calm and peaceful waters. Less than two years may tell the tale.

Children Seeking Homes

The Department of Neglected

Children at Edmonton are looking for homes for eight Catholic children. Annie, a little girl aged eight, a particularly attractive and bright child, is desired for a home in some good Catholic family. Frank, her brother, aged four and a half, an equally attractive boy, is anxious for a good home in a Catholic family, where he will have a chance to grow up as a good man,

Joseph, aged nine, a good Canadian, with the looks and manners of a gentleman, should be an accompany in some good Catholic home.

James, aged twelve, is anxious to make his way in the world. Another Joseph, aged about seven and a half, a particularly handsome boy, who is anxious for a good home and who will more than repay investment of the good Catholic home who is willing to give him an opportunity to become a man.

A home is also wanted for Lewis, aged three years and a half and for John, aged two. These are all Catholic children who are under the care of the department because of the fact that they are either orphanes or because their parents are unable to properly care for them.

Applications for these children should be sent to the superintendent of neglected children at Edmonton.

It should be remembered that the applicants must have good homes and that the children must be desired for their own sakes before they will be allowed to go to foster homes. The best homes in the country are none too good for these children, who are under the care of the department and who are well qualified to grace a place in any home.

Happenings in and Around Blairmore

H. S. Pellerin came up from Monarch on Sunday.

BORN—on Sunday last, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chestnut, a son. Miss C. Lindsay has accepted a position as head cook at the Cement Lodge.

Miss A. Albert went to Pincher Creek on Monday and returned to town on Tuesday.

Dr. T. O'Hagan came up from Lethbridge on Sunday last and returned on Monday.

J. M. Carter attended the Conservative speaker at Pincher Creek on Monday evening.

L. H. Putnam was a visitor in Pincher Creek on Monday, returning Tuesday morning.

A communion service will be held in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning next at 11 o'clock.

A dance will be given under the auspices of the Church of England in the opera house on Wednesday next, commencing at 8.30 p.m.

To Blairmore belongs the credit of giving the largest Liberal vote of any town in the Pass. Warnock received 132; Herron, 111 and Fulcher 98.

Quite a number of the local sportsmen are going in search of prairie chickens and vartridges on Monday next. We hope that no mishap will follow. Be sure of your game before you shoot.

On Tuesday morning several of H. C. Bigelow's sympathizers watched him roll a bean from the post office to L. H. Putnam's law office, Victoria street, as the result of a bet on the recent elections.

The young men of Blairmore gave a pleasant dance in the opera house on Tuesday evening last. A goodly number was present. The floor was in splendid condition and the "light fantastic" was indulged in with considerable pleasure.

David Brattstrom and his company in the funny Swedish dialect comedy, "Yon Yonson" appeared in the opera house here on Monday evening last. The performance was of a humorous nature and kept the audience continually laughing.

Dr. D. Warnock, the newly elected M.P. for this constituency, was in town on Tuesday morning shaking hands with many of his friends. The doctor says that he will do his utmost for the good of his constituency and will ever defend its cause in the house of parliament.

The picnic which was to have taken place here on Wednesday (yesterday) afternoon under the auspices of the Church of England was cancelled on account of the unsettled weather. Those who baked cakes for this occasion might leave same at this office where they will be taken care of.

W. J. Bartlett, manager of this paper, will arrive in Blairmore on Sunday next after spending upwards of three months with parents and friends in Newfoundland, some of the New England States and several cities in eastern Canada. He is being accompanied by another member of the family.

The season for antelope, prairie chickens and partridges opens on the 1st of October but as that date falls on Sunday, the first lawful day will be on the following Monday. The law prohibits the killing by one person of more than two antelopes (males) for the season and of more than ten chickens or partridges per day or of more than one hundred per season.

Bowling Allies Being Installed at Blairmore

James Burrows and "Danny" Lewis are installing in their pool room on Victoria Street, two ten-pin bowling allies of the Brunswick-Balke-Collender's make. The allies are being installed on the east side of the main floor and will be ready for use in about two weeks.

Coleman Notes

P. Burrek, the cattle king, was in Coleman on Monday on a tour of inspection.

Several Colemans attended the dance given at Blairmore on Tuesday evening. They all report a good time.

Quite a number of beautiful cottages have been erected here during the past few months and several more are in course of erection.

Dr. D. Warnock, M.P., was in town on Monday and met quite a number of his supporters. The newly elected M.P. received numerous congratulations during his visit here.

Miss Jameson, of Calgary, president of the Rebekah Assembly, was in town on Monday evening and met the members of the local Rebekah Lodge in their hall in the evening.

The vote polled at Coleman on Thursday of last week was larger than that polled by any other town in the Pass. The result was: Warnock, Liberal, 118; Herron, Conservative, 51; Fulcher, Socialist, 227.

A party of ambitious and venturesome Colemans with perhaps a unit from Blairmore, will endeavor to scale the Willoughby ridge of mountains on Wednesday afternoon next. Another cause of "lofty ambitions."

CORRESPONDENCE

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

DE SIR—Kindly allow me space in your valuable paper, which is, I am told, the source of illumination on matters social, moral and political for the district.

Acknowledging ourselves to be ignorant so far as politics and a lot of other things are concerned, in spite of, or perhaps because of the abundance of reading matter which comes to our hand, each organ purporting to set forth the matter as it really is, and in anticipation of the time when we, as women, shall have the privilege of the franchise, a few of the bravest of us wended our way to the hall of learning, the Blairmore opera house, last Wednesday evening, where, we were informed, we should hear both sides of the story, or rather three sides of it, from some of the leading lights in circles political. On our arrival we were held on the platform such an array of greatness as almost took our breath away and the question presented itself—'Who's Who and Why?' but we patiently wait for the chairman to announce their degree of greatness.

The first to speak was a lawyer, and even we were aware of the fact that a lawyer's cleverness lies in hiding, rather than revealing the truth, we did not look for much light on the subject from him but waited for the next speaker who, as you probably know, was the speaker of this evening, and he told us, with all the eloquence at his command, what the Liberal party has always stood for, what is its position in regard to the present issue and what he would endeavor to do for this constituency if favored with the support of the electors, and we thought now we were getting the real thing, but the next speaker, who was "agin the government," undeceived us by telling us that what the other speakers had just told us was all wrong; that the Liberal party were thieves and robbers and that the Conservative party was the right one to vote for. Then we listened with wonder to the fluent advocate of the third party whose platform bode fair to bridge the chasm which stretched between the other two and whose cause appeared equally as good, perhaps even better because of the far-reaching influence of the great machine, Socialism. And our curiosity was aroused and would like to have heard him explain the practical side of it as we have no doubt about its being a good thing if it could be worked. It was all very interesting also very puzzling and we look around at our more fortunate brothers we find that they are offering up license to the greatest before us and through the cloud we can still catch the glimmer of that brilliance which holds us all in thrall in this period of the world's history.

MAID IN THE MIST.
